MODEL DESCRIPTIONS

HAIX CONNEXIS FORCE AIR coyote 350006

The Connexis Force Air Rindspaltleder gives you stability in every position. To protect you against skidding, the sole of the Connexis Force Air Rindspaltleder with its special rubber compound and innovative tread construction offers extremely high slip resistance and grip on a wide variety of surfaces.

Your Connexis Force Air Rindspaltleder is made of high-quality cow split leather, which is exceptionally robust and makes the boot extremely durable.

With our Smart Lacing System, you can quickly and easily adjust your Connexis Force Air Rindspaltleder to the shape of your foot. Thanks to the pressure-free quick-release closure and optimized lace pocket, you can slip in and out of your Connexis Force Air Rindspaltleder in no time. The closed lacing system ensures a secure fit, while the new design of the lace pocket gives your shoe a modern look.

The Connexis Force Air Rindspaltleder is completely metal-free and therefore ideal for your job in security areas. Annoying beeping in the vicinity of the control systems is now a thing of the past.

The Connexis Force Air Rindspaltleder gives you more endurance in everyday life because its built-in CONNEXIS fascia tape stimulates your foot muscles. The result: wearing comfort that makes your whole body feel invigorated.

Endless energy. The Energy Return midsole absorbs and releases energy with every step you take. This way you move through the day more efficiently and with less effort.

You'll experience a comfortable feel in the Connexis Force Air Rindspaltleder even when you're out for several hours. Because the integrated cushioning wedge inside cushions your steps. We call this HAIX Absorption: for drive even on long working days.

The right shoe for your feet. Thanks to specially designed lasts, your Connexis Force Air Rindspaltleder fits perfectly and provides ultimate wearing comfort, the whole day long.
